CODE AND DATA DISCLOSURE FORM

Required Effective June 1, 2019

Title of Manuscript:

Gender Mix and Team Performance: Evidence from Obstetrics

Please review the complete Code and Data Disclosure Policy at https://pubsonline.informs.org/page/mnsc/datapolicy.

✔ Check that you are familiar with the policy and agree to comply.

Indicate which data policy applies by checking the appropriate box below:

The paper is not based on code or data.

The author(s) will provide all code and data as necessary to reproduce the paper's results as stipulated in the Code and Data Disclosure Policy (see https://pubsonline.informs.org/page/mnsc/datapolicy).

The paper uses public data or commercial data available for purchase or via subscription. The author(s) will provide instructions regarding how to obtain all data, as well as all code necessary to reproduce the paper's results.

✔ The data are proprietary (e.g., NDA) and cannot be shared. An exception is requested, and the following Alternative Disclosure Plan is proposed (see, e.g., policy items 4a–f at https://pubsonline.informs.org/page/mnsc/datapolicy).
Specify Alternative Disclosure Plan below:

The data were purchased from the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA) with a signed DUA. In the replication kit we will provide: 1) Instructions on how to purchase the data, 2) a complete data dictionary, 3) all code used to clean the data and produce the analysis, and 4) log files that show all key output. Whenever data that is public is merged in, we will make this data publicly available.
